Phil,

Just to clarify a bit further, WK.01-1 is the Steelcase product at 5'-5 ½" high while WK.01-2 is the Herman Miller product at 5'-8" high. Once the bid is finalized and a manufacturer is selected, one of these will go away but for now we are showing them both in order to account for differences in component dimensions from the two manufacturers. WK.01C will be whichever product is chosen plus the divider panel.

Thanks,

Phil,
That is the intent, along with the final division 1 instructions in the BID.
However it appears to be missing the WK.01-1/2 typical workstation sheets.

Thomas

Is this description and the attached specifications what Perkins & Will intended for the "Mock-up" furniture?

- Mock-Up on the fourth floor at 888 First Street NE
  (1) Private executive office
  (2) Small private offices
  (1) Systems workstation WK.01-2
  (1) Systems workstation WK.01-C
  Note: use variations of single and double monitor arms for mock-up
